A Regatta Held on Potomac.

The regatta to be held on the Upper Potomac, under the direction of the Middle States Rowing Association, will afford sport for many, and is one of the important Labor Day events. At the near-by river resorts, special excursions are planned, and the managers of Marshall Hall, River View, Colonial Beach, Luna Park, Chesapeake Beach, Glen Echo, and Great Falls have all arranged special programmes for the benefit of the expected visitors.

There will be baseball games galore. and the enthusiasts of the sport will have every opportunity to pass pleasant Trotting races will be the order of the day at the Brightwood Driving Park, and those who delight in golf and ennis will have ample opportunity of indulging in these sports at the various grounds and clubs around the city. Under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Union, a Labor Day outing will be held at Falls Church, Va. Patriotism vill be the chief object of the mass meeting to be held by the Army and Navy Union at G. A. R. Hall. This meeting will be attended by the national officers of the society from Baltimore, the Taft athletes have entered, and a full proand Sherman Marching Club, the United Spanish War Veterans, and other organ-

Celebration to Be Conservative. Unlike other cities in the United States, the day will be celebrated here in a conservative manner, with speechmaking, games, merriment, and the social intermingling of the crafts.

It is expected 15,000 organized workingmen, their families, and friends, will participate in the big fete at the Benning race track. Preparations for this event houses will have an opportunity to have been under way for the last two themselves to seashore or country. months.
